

A message from the Minister of Canadian Heritage

“To clear our minds and reduce the stress caused by the difficult situation we’re all going through, what’s better than unwinding with the help of our favorite comedians? The Just for Laughs Festival hybrid edition has come at exactly the right time, and offers us a full lineup that will entertain a wide audience and highlight both established and emerging artists.”

—The Honourable Steven Guilbeault, Minister of Canadian Heritage