The Man in Black - A Tribute to Johnny Cash at Théâtre St-Denis this summer as part of the Juste for Laughs Festival!

Montreal, March 24, 2015 – After five successful summer seasons at the Capitole de Québec, The Man in Black – A Tribute to Johnny Cash comes to Montreal’s Théâtre St-Denis 2 starting July 1st as part of the 33rd edition of the Juste pour rire Festival. The show is presented by Juste pour rire in collaboration with the Capitole and Théâtre St-Denis.

The Man in Black pays tribute to the musical genius of Johnny Cash, who is portrayed in his heyday by Shawn Barker, a larger-than-life performer who gives life to the character with breathtaking authenticity. Accompanied by four musicians and two backup singers, the impersonator plays Cash’s biggest hits, from his earliest recordings in 1955 (Hey Porter, Cry, Cry, Cry), to his duets with his muse and wife June Carter (Jackson, Darlin’ Companion), not to mention his signature tune, Ring of Fire.

The story of Johnny Cash, as well as his music, touched millions around the world and was defined by his search for truth and inner peace. He lived the life of a rebel and continues to seduce a whole new generation of fans with his timeless music. He created a sound that was all his own and a legacy that still inspires so many young emerging artists of all genres.
